

CV: Sven Vinge – June 2018

Place and date of birth: Avignon, France, June 15, 1980.

SVEN VINGE, born in France, lives and works in Denmark. Sven studied filmmaking at the University in Copenhagen and at UCLA, School of Theatre, Film and Television in California, before joining the Super16 association. Sven works within both narrative fiction and documentary. In 2011, his short film "Words" was awarded the prize as best international short at Raindance Film and his most recent film, the feature documentary "In My Father's Hands" was selected by the critically-acclaimed festival CPH:DOX in March, 2017 and premiered theatrically and on national Danish television in the spring of 2018. Sven speaks fluently Danish, French and English.

Web: www.svenvinge.dk

WORK:

2013 - Associate professor teaching graduate courses at:

The University of Southern Denmark: Screenwriting courses.

The University of Copenhagen: Film production and screenwriting.

2004 - Film director and Screenwriter:

2017, In My Father's Hands, 76 min. Documentary, screened at CPH:DOX in March, 2017 and theatrically released in Denmark in March, 2018.

2013, The Prank, 13 min. Fiction. Uppsala Film Festival 2013.

2011, Words, 15 min. Fiction. 1st prize, Best International Short, Raindance, 2011. Selected at New Orleans Film Festival 2011, Southside Film Festival, Pennsylvania and Maremetraggio Film Festival, Trieste, 2012.

2010, Angels in the snow, 25 min. Fiction. Selected at New Orleans Film Festival 2011 and Southside Film Festival, Pennsylvania, 2012.

2008, Tracing Democracy in Denmark, 30 min. Documentary series for MS Action Aid Denmark.

2005, Burkina Bawfora – Burkina Greets You, 12 min. Documentary shot in Burkian Faso. 1st prize at Hugo Festival, Copenhagen, 2006. Nominated at Odense Film Festival, 2005.

EDUCATION:

2013 Completed the three-year program at the film school Super16 in Copenhagen as Director. www.super16.dk

2011 Master of Arts in Film Studies at the University of Copenhagen. Final thesis on the "Short Fiction Film" including the production of the short film "Words".

2008 Attended the Berlinale Talent Campus during the film festival as director.

2007 One year as an exchange student at UCLA, School of Theater, Film and Television in Los Angeles. Theater, writing and documentary courses.

2005 Bachelor of Arts in Film and Media Studies at the University in Copenhagen.

2003 One year professional education in my city of birth Avignon at Institut des Métiers de la Communication Audiovisuelle de Provence.